

--	--	--	--	--	--

LEAVE BLANK WHEN ANSWERING
FROM THE SHARED LINKBefore you answer, read or listen to: Ruth 1

Mark one circle ○ for each question. Where it says "Choose all that apply", mark every box ☐ that fits. Write on the lines where there are no choices.

1 What type of translation did your community agree upon or expect?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Corresponding — very close to the original Greek or Hebrew
- ☐ Resembling — close to the original with some adjustments for clarity
- ☐ Clarifying — focused on understandability in natural language
- ☐ Simplifying — easy to understand, using contemporary everyday language
- ☐ We did not have a prior agreement on translation type
- ☐ I am not aware of what type of translation the translators agreed upon
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____

2 In your judgment, does this translation reflect that agreed-upon type?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, it clearly reflects the agreed-upon translation type
- ☐ It partially reflects the agreed-upon type but drifts in places
- ☐ It does not reflect the agreed-upon type
- ☐ We did not have a prior agreement so we cannot evaluate this
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____

3 Which Christian denominations or traditions are active in your language area?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ We have one denomination active in our language area
- ☐ We have several denominations active in our language area
- ☐ We have many denominations active in our language area
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____

4 How broadly are the denominations in your language area involved in this translation project?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ All or nearly all denominations active in our language area are involved
- ☐ About half of the denominations active in our language area are involved
- ☐ Only one denomination is involved
- ☐ We are not sure which denominations are involved
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____

5 How are church leaders using this translation in their ministry?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Church leaders across multiple denominations are regularly using it in ministry
- ☐ Some church leaders are using it regularly, others are not
- ☐ It is occasionally used by some church leaders
- ☐ It is not yet being used in church ministry
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____

6 How confident are you that the translation team followed a sound and robust translation process?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Highly confident
 - ☐ Moderately confident
 - ☐ Not very confident
 - ☐ I don't have enough information to say
 - ☐ Other (please describe): _____
-

7 How confident are you in the translation team's understanding of the meaning of the original text?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Highly confident
 - ☐ Moderately confident
 - ☐ Not very confident
 - ☐ I don't have enough information to say
 - ☐ Other (please describe): _____
-

8 Does this translation use language that is clear, natural, and understandable?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, consistently throughout
 - ☐ In most places, but not all
 - ☐ In some places, but not consistently
 - ☐ No, it is generally unclear or unnatural
 - ☐ Other (please describe): _____
-

9 Does this translation use language that is beautiful and appealing?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, consistently throughout
 - ☐ In most places, but not all
 - ☐ In some places, but not consistently
 - ☐ No
 - ☐ Other (please describe): _____
-

10 In your judgment, is this translation ready to be distributed and used widely in church and community?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, we are ready to bless it for wide use
 - ☐ Yes, but with a few adjustments first
 - ☐ Not yet — significant work remains
 - ☐ Other (please describe): _____
-

11 How often do you yourself use this translation?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ I use it every day and preach from it
- ☐ I use a mix of the vernacular and the national language translations in my ministry
- ☐ I only use the national language translation in my ministry

12 Think of the people in your congregation who use the Scripture regularly. How does it impact their emotions?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ I have heard many testimonies that they feel God's love, care, or conviction deeply through his word
- ☐ Some of them have shared that they feel God's love, care, or conviction through his word, but not too many
- ☐ This translation does not seem to be affecting them very much

13 Think of the people in your congregation who use the Scripture regularly. How does it impact their actions and choices?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ I have seen many people change their lives in response to God's word
- ☐ I have seen a few people change their lives in response to God's word
- ☐ This translation does not seem to be affecting their actions and choices very much

14 Have you noticed any changes in your community since this translation has been available?

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, we have seen significant positive changes
- ☐ We have seen some changes
- ☐ We have not noticed any changes yet
- ☐ Other (please describe): _____